

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
(Release No. 34-55979; File No. SR-NASDAQ-2007-055)

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change to Modify Fees for Members Using the Nasdaq Market Center

June 28, 2007

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on May 29, 2007, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by Nasdaq. Nasdaq filed the proposal pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2)⁴ thereunder, as establishing or changing a member due, fee, or other charge, which renders the proposed rule change effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Nasdaq proposes to modify pricing for Nasdaq members using the Nasdaq Market Center. Nasdaq will implement this rule change on June 1, 2007. The text of the proposed rule change is available at Nasdaq, www.nasdaq.com, and the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Nasdaq is increasing its fees for routing orders in securities other than exchange-traded funds to the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") in instances where the order does not check the Nasdaq book prior to routing. The current fees for such orders are $0.0035 per share executed for a Directed Intermarket Sweep Order for securities priced at $1 or more per share, $0.000275 per share executed for other orders for securities priced at $1 or more per share, and 0.3% of the total transaction cost for routed orders in securities priced at less than $1 per share. The fees for Directed Intermarket Sweep Orders and transactions at under $1 per share will remain unchanged. Effective June 1, 2007, however, the fee of $0.000275 per share executed for securities priced at $1 or more per share will be available only if a member has an average daily volume through the Nasdaq Market Center in all securities during the month of more than 35 million shares of liquidity provided; members with an average daily volume through the Nasdaq Market Center in all securities during the month of more than 20 million shares of liquidity provided will pay $0.000325 per share executed, and other members will pay $0.00035.

Nasdaq is also changing the means of calculating whether members qualify for reduced fees when accessing liquidity in the Nasdaq Market Center, routing to venues other than NYSE, and/or routing orders for exchange-traded funds to the NYSE. These fees are determined by a member's average daily volume of shares of liquidity provided, and its average daily volume of shares of liquidity accessed and/or routed. Nasdaq will not count orders that do not attempt to execute in Nasdaq prior to routing to other venues in determining a member's average daily volume of shares of liquidity accessed and/or routed.⁵

The changes are designed to enhance the quality of Nasdaq's market by providing an incentive for members to enter orders that check the Nasdaq book prior to routing. An increase in the extent to which members check the book will in turn encourage liquidity providers to post executable quotes in Nasdaq. Moreover, orders that check the Nasdaq book have an opportunity to post to the book if they are not immediately executable in Nasdaq or elsewhere, and therefore may themselves serve as a source of liquidity provision in Nasdaq. In a Regulation NMS trading environment, market participants must seek the best immediately executable price, and therefore the ability to encourage liquidity provision will be key to a market's ability to compete. Moreover, in situations where market centers are quoting the same price, the pricing change will provide an incentive for market participants to access liquidity in Nasdaq before accessing it elsewhere. To the extent that market participants do enter orders that route immediately, moreover, the pricing change will offer a better price to market participants that nevertheless contribute to market quality by providing liquidity.

⁵ Nasdaq is also deleting obsolete language that described pricing temporarily in effect in March 2007 for securities priced under $1.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁶ in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which Nasdaq operates or controls. Nasdaq believes that the fee change reflects an allocation of fees that recognizes the benefits to Nasdaq market quality of liquidity provision and orders that access liquidity in Nasdaq prior to routing.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing proposed rule change has become effective upon filing with the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act⁸ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2)

⁶ 15 U.S.C. 78f.

⁷ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(4).

⁸ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(ii).

thereunder,⁹ in that the proposed rule change establishes or changes a member due, fee, or other charge imposed by the self-regulatory organization. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:
